

INVITATION TO SEMINAR ON ANIMAL WELFARE

Challenges and Experiences in Implementing Animal Welfare in Global Supply Chains

June 15th 2009

CBS, Room PH 0.023, Porcelænshaven 18B, DK - 2000 Frederiksberg at 1.00 pm – 3.30 pm

PROGRAM

-
- 1:00-1:10 Welcome – Why Focus on Animal Welfare by Hanne Gürtler, Director, DIEH, DK
- 1:10-1:30 Animal Ethics vs. Animal Welfare by Peter Sandøe, Professor, Copenhagen University, DK
- 1:30-1:50 Animal Welfare – National and International Trends and Standards by Björn Forkman, Lecturer, Copenhagen University, DK
- 1:50-2:10 Practical Implementation of Animal Welfare by Per Olsen, Chief Advisor, Danish Agricultural Council, DK
- 2:00-2:20 Coffee break/Networking
- 2:20-2:40 Heterogeneous Ethical Standards across the World –Problems and Moral Obligations by David Bowles, Head of External Affairs, The Royal Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, RSPCA, UK
- 2:40-3.00 Development of Reporting Indicators for Animal Welfare, TBA
- 3:00-3:30 Discussion
1. How should companies deal with animal welfare in their global supply chains?
  2. Which animal welfare standards and indicators can be used?

The seminar is open for all interested stakeholders. For registration please contact Hanne Gürtler by e-mail at hg@dieh.dk or phone at +45 3815 4221 or +45 2162 2666 no later than June 10th.

For further information please visit www.dieh.dk